

SUMMER SPORT CAMPS

Rocky Mountain Fencing Academy is organizing Sports Camps and provide introductory in fencing instruction, taking into account the performance levels of each individual camper. The typical daily schedule includes fencing practice sessions combined with other fun sports and activities. Camp competitions are scheduled for the last camp day. An excellent student/instructor ratio is maintained to provide individual coaching attention for each student. Organizer of the camp provides all the necessary sports and fencing equipment that is needed for the camp;

RMFA Summer Camps are designed to learn different sports and the best everything possible about fencing - get experiences with different and new partners, taking into account the performance levels of each individual camper. The camp program includes: 1) group lessons and drills to enhance fencing skills, group and individual tactic and mental practices, group run and games to introduce or to enforce tactical concepts, strategies and strength, and to broaden knowledge and appreciation of the sport; 2) supervised practices, with a variety of partners to gain new and varied competitive experiences; 3) a variety of games to enhance physical skills in many other sports.
